

Waterford's day

HOW SHANAHAN KILLED CORK ♦ SportsMonday

Spraoi spir

FESTIVAL SHOWDOWN ♦ AU

NewsDigest

Two killed, three injured, in crash near Fermoy

Two men in their 20s were killed in a single-vehicle crash at Strawhall near Fermoy, Co Cork, last night. A man and two women travelling in the car were taken to hospital, but are not seriously injured.

Talks over the future of Shannon-Heathrow route

Aer Lingus is to begin talks with staff and local interests about the possible discontinuation of the Shannon airport to Heathrow route. Company sources confirmed talks about the route's future were imminent: page 3

HomeNews

Extortion racket: Gardaí in Dublin believe they have uncovered an organised extortion racket being run by a prominent member of the Irish National Liberation Army after armed officers raided a house: page 3

O'Donoghue pledge on Oireachtas access: In response to the results of an opinion poll, Ceann Comhairle John O'Donoghue has pledged to make the work of the Dáil and the Malachy Byrne from Kilcurry, Co Louth, wading through flood waters in fields reserved for the vintage tractor world record attempt at Cooley Vintage Festival yesterday. Photograph: Matt Kavanagh. Deluge fails to deter vintage festival fans, AugustLive, page 10.

Cross-Border moves to guard

Ra
ma
we a v

JOHN D

A nation and an ou
among th in many the bank.

There
dare's se arriving Christy their to flooding.

Elsew
motorist
flooding
Waterfo
Gardaí

out of Du GAA ma busy, but

Among
by rain w ster and appeared severe d

Met E ment a recorded 46mm (1
6pm on I Station
Cork air
Westme
37mm ar
By